

Exxaro completes acquisition of manganese interests owned by Ntsimbintle Holdings, to become 19.99% shareholder in Jupiter Mines and JV partner at Tshipi

Jupiter Mines Limited (ASX:JMS) (Jupiter or the Company) notes the announcement by Exxaro Resources Limited (JSE:EXX) (Exxaro), on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE), on 2 March 2026, that it has completed its acquisition of various manganese mining investments in South Africa, including a 50.1% ownership interest in the Tshipi Manganese Mine (Tshipi) and a 19.99% shareholding in Jupiter (Tshipi Transaction).

Under the Tshipi Transaction, Exxaro has acquired Ntsimbintle Holdings (Pty) Ltd's (NH) 37.1% interest in Tshipi, OM Holdings Limited's (ASX: OMH) (OMH) 13.0% interest in Tshipi and NH and OMH's Tshipi marketing rights (equating to the right to market 50.1% of Tshipi's ore sales). The terms of the Tshipi Shareholders Agreement are unaffected by the transaction. Jupiter's pro rata Tshipi marketing rights are likewise unaffected by the Tshipi Transaction.

Exxaro has indicated to Jupiter it does not currently intend to seek the appointment of a representative to the Jupiter Board of Directors.

Jupiter Mines Chair Ian Murray said: "We are happy the Tshipi Transaction has completed and welcome Exxaro as a major shareholder in Jupiter and JV partner in Tshipi. We are looking forward to working constructively with Exxaro to continue to enhance the value of Tshipi for all its stakeholders. Exxaro brings invaluable South African operational and logistics expertise and a shared commitment to unlocking the full potential of the Tshipi operation. Exxaro's investment strengthens our platform for growth and supports our strategy to consolidate and create value across the Kalahari Manganese Field."

On behalf of Jupiter's Board and Management Team, sincere thanks are extended to Ntsimbintle Holdings and OM Holdings for their longstanding partnership and significant contributions to Tshipi's success."
