UPDATE ON TSHIPI OPERATIONS AND SOUTH AFRICA LOCKDOWN

Jupiter Mines Limited ("Jupiter") (ASX: JMS) reports that the South African Government has extended the country’s lockdown until the end of April.

After applying to the Department of Mineral Resources, Tshipi é Ntle Manganese Mining (Pty) Limited ("Tshipi") has been granted approval to partially restart operations at the Tshipi Borwa Manganese Mine from 14 April.

Tshipi management is currently working with contractors, suppliers and Transnet to coordinate the partial recommencement of production and exports. The health and safety of all parties remain of utmost importance during this time.

Jupiter will update the market when further guidance is available.
